

Basic Training fees spending breakdown

Internationally recognised qualification

Ensuring our programs meet the requirements of Australian Medical Council and the Medical Council of New Zealand

Curriculum renewal

Continued review and maintenance of the curricula and associated resources

Research and advocacy

Leading the way in defining international best practice and campaigning on behalf of our trainees for optimal training environments and opportunities

Technology for training

Maintenance of the RACP website, eLearning@RACP, training portals and other tools to support trainees, educators and Fellows

$3,543
2019 Basic Training fees

$1,930
Written Exam fee

$2,880
Clinical Exam fee

Management of the training program

Application processing, eligibility checking, certification of progression and advice on training requirements for

4800+ trainees each year

Training resources

Maintenance and development of eLearning modules, curated collections and other training resources available via eLearning@RACP and the College Learning Series

60+

38+ podcast episodes via Pomegranate Health

Exam development

588 exam items created in 2018

Exam calibration

56 calibration sessions held across Australia and New Zealand to ensure parity in exam outcomes

Exam administration

129 clinical and written exam locations across Australia and New Zealand plus associated costs for

1200+ national, regional and local examiners

1000+

Training oversight

Fellows and trainees participating in committees governing training to ensure fit for purpose programs, quality outcomes and compliance with regulatory requirements

30 Training accreditations

Training settings accredited each year to assess quality in training delivery

Supervisor Training

5167 Australian and New Zealand supervisors trained via 99+ supervisor workshops per year

9 jurisdictions

+ management of the Supervisors Professional Development Program

Training Support

Staffing of the Training Support Unit and RACP Support Program for confidential counselling and advice to trainees in difficulty

Member support and events

169 events held for trainees in 2018